Mag. Petra Krassnitzer

art historian & gallerist

„I see myself as a kind of art filter. As art historian. As gallerist. As curator. Art is not a money investment with a big artist name to me. I select real artistic quality - tasteful and touchy art. I allow my art collectors to feel drawn to their own art piece. Without any intervention from me."

In my ONLINE GALLERIES I select high-quality works of art from selected artists for exquisite art collectors and art-loving people. Because art is meant to be seen.
