MAGNETIC PULSE MUSCLE TRAINING

Short, comfortable & effective – for stronger muscles
and a more defined shape.

Hypershaping is effective muscle training using advanced magnetic pulse technology – targeted, deep-acting, and completely effortless while lying down. Perfect for building muscle, definition, or overall strength – with maximum results in minimal time, and no sweat required.

This is why people choose Hypershaping:

- Comfortable yet highly effective training using modern technology
- Up to approx. 20,000 muscle contractions per session through magnetic pulse stimulation
- Customizable training options tailored to individual goals (muscle growth, definition, strength, etc.)
- Effortless sessions in everyday clothing – 20 minutes lying down
- Backed by scientific research
