GROUP HEALTH INSURANCE

UNO Vienna

With Generali's Occupational Health Care you and your relatives enjoy extensive benefits at especially attractive rates.

3 monthly premiums free of charge upon joining until 31.12.2026

Advantages of Group Health Insurance:

Conditions for Groups

- Within the scope of the Group Health Insurance, top benefits of the Generali Health Care are at your disposal at an extremely favourable premium.

Family Members

- You can include your family members in the insurance at the same favourable group conditions.

You can choose from the entire product range of Generali Health Care, e.g.:

MedCare: Special Class

With the hospital expenses insurance of Generali, you obtain access to the most modern and best treatments by freely choosing your own trusted doctor or hospital. Whether illness or accident: We provide cost coverage for special class double bedrooms in the federal state you desire and direct billing with all contracted hospitals in Austria.

MedCare: Private Doctors & Alternative Health Care

We offer reimbursement of costs for a comprehensive treatment spectrum on an outpatient basis (traditional and alternative medicine) that helps you to stay healthy as well as to recover: medical advice and curative treatment from top medical experts, prevention measures, psychotherapeutic and psychological treatments, drugs, therapeutic aids, telemedicine advice and support etc. If you do not receive any insurance benefit within a calendar year, we reimburse you 15 % of the annual tariff rate!

Cure and Rehabilitation

You obtain daily allowance in case of cure and rehabilitation stays which are granted by the social insurance.
We also reimburse costs of a "Generali cure" (instead of the daily allowance, if the stay is granted by Generali).

MedReise

With this component you enjoy worldwide insurance coverage when travelling up to 6 weeks in each case: reimbursement of costs for in- and outpatient treatments during all of your travels abroad, transport costs and organisation in case of emergencies at home and abroad.
